The Overland China Mail,

A WEEKLY JOURNAL FOR THE HOME MAIL.

IS PUBLISHED to suit the Department of each English and French Mail Steamer for Europe. Formerly the Overland Mail was published fortnightly; but as it was deemed of special importance that a weekly budget of news should be prepared, it was decided to issue it weekly. Subscriptions at Home, and those at the Coast Ports and in the interior, who and the Overland Mail, will welcome the newspaper for their personal, will welcome the change. The Overland China Mail, now a weekly compendium of news from the Far East, contains special Commercial Intelligence, special list of Shipping, and other information. The various Reports of Courts and Meetings, and all other news, are given in full as they appear in the Daily Press.

The attention of Advertisers is directed to a weekly newspaper, which is circulated among old China hands and others, both at home and in the Far East, who do not take the daily journals.

The Overland China Mail will be regularly posted from the China Mail Office to subscribers, on their addresses being forwarded to us.

THE CHINA REVIEW.
PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY,
TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of 'Notes and Queries of China and Japan,' has reached its fourteenth volume. The Review contains these topics which are of upmost interest to the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to 'Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office.'

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondence column also affords farther and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are welcomed. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is exceptionally cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are: Dr. Chalmers, Rogge, Broecker, and Hirth, Professor Legge, and Messrs. Balfour, Waters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jameson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Piton, and Taylor—all well known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $5.50 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to. Address: Manager, China Mail Office.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

'All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review.'—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.)

'The China Review ... has an excellent table of contents.'—Celestial Empire.

'The Publication always contains subjects of interest to students in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourably if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers.'—Celestial Empire.

'This number contains several articles of interest and value.'—Northern Herald.

'The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Me-tropolitans and abroad are all interested in the valuable contribution by Dr. Fritzsche, on "The Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. "Notes on the Date Occupation of Fomosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books includes a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hsi," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting.'—North-China Daily News.

'A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronise.'—The Standard.

'The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that has necessarily been of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. Mr. E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen" are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. E. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which deals with the Chinese in Western Europe and Japan, might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number.'—H.K. Daily Press.

'The Review's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:— The present number, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Celestial Empire. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering much channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is not assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. ...
Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that 'Notes and Queries' are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this is now providing for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance.'
